Swallow is a 19ft Mk1 Cornish Shrimper manufactured by Cornish Crabbers in 1988. Shrimpers are day sailor yachts based on traditional classic gaff rig design.

She is skippered by Toby Denham and his friend and crew of 20 years, George Mitchell.

Swallow is so named because Toby's grandfather was co-writer with Arthur Ransome on his favourite childhood novel, Swallows and Amazons.

Swallow presently holds the South West Gaffers shrimper class trophy.
